

A shear-dominated bounce ($f_\sigma = 0.9$):
torsion caps the shear instead of letting it diverge

Even shear-dominated, the bounce stays adiabatic

$$D - 1 \lesssim 10^{-10} \Rightarrow \eta_{\text{baby}} = \eta_{\text{parent}}$$

