

An OGU is NOT magnified vs its void ($\mu \sim 1$)
 astrophysical black holes are ($\mu \sim 10^9 \text{--} 10^{14}$)

Why: a horizon-mass hole has the cosmic mean density
 (the $R_s = R_H$ identity), so an OGU scales to $\mu = 1$

