

The self-consistent soliton: filling the levels digs the well that binds them (Part II, target #1)

The converged self-bound soliton
(the well digs itself)

The loop converges to a fixed point
(the soliton is real, not assumed)

