

We see further back every year
(the past horizon recedes toward the de Sitter limit)

We feel the parent's mass before we see it $\Rightarrow$  dark matter is a rate, not a relic

